RECOMMENDATION OF THE MAGISTRATE JUDGE

Plaintiff, an inmate confined at the Ventress Correctional Facility, recently initiated the instant 42 U.S.C. § 1983 action. Doc. 1. Plaintiff did not submit the $350 filing fee or $50 administrative fee upon the initiation of this case and, instead, filed an application seeking leave to proceed in forma pauperis before this Court. Doc. 2. However, Plaintiff failed to file the required prison account information necessary for this Court to determine whether prepayment of fees is required.<sup>1</sup> The Court ordered Plaintiff to file the necessary account information on or before December 3, 2021. Doc. 3. Plaintiff was advised that failure to file the requisite information would result in dismissal of this action. Id. at 2.

As of the present date, Plaintiff has not provided the Court with the necessary prison account information. The foregoing reflects Plaintiff's lack of interest in the continued prosecution of this case. This action cannot properly proceed absent Plaintiff's participation in the proceedings. Under the circumstances of this case, the undersigned finds that lesser sanctions than dismissal are not appropriate. See Abreu-Velez v. Bd. of Regents of Univ. System of Georgia, 248 F. App'x 116, 117–18 (11th Cir. 2007). Thus, this case is due to be dismissed. See Moon v. Newsome, 863 F.2d 835, 837 (11th Cir. 1989) (holding that, as a general rule, where a litigant has been forewarned, dismissal for failure to obey a court order is not an abuse of discretion); see also Link v. Wabash R.R. Co., 370 U.S. 626, 629–31 (1962) (acknowledging that the authority of courts to impose sanctions for failure to prosecute or obey an order is longstanding and empowers courts “to manage their own affairs so as to achieve the orderly and expeditious disposition of cases”); Mingo v. Sugar Cane Growers Co-Op of Fla., 864 F.2d 101, 102 (11th Cir. 1989) (holding that “[t]he district court possesses the inherent power to police its docket . . . . The sanctions imposed [upon dilatory litigants] can range from a simple reprimand to an order dismissing the action with or without prejudice.”).

<sup>1</sup> In accordance with 28 U.S.C. § 1915(b)(1), a prisoner who seeks to proceed in forma pauperis in a civil action or on appeal is required to pay the full amount of the required filing fee. Thus, this Court must assess and, when funds exist, collect the $350.00 filing fee from monies available to Plaintiff when the amount in Plaintiff's account exceeds $10.00.

Accordingly, it is the RECOMMENDATION of the Magistrate Judge that this case be DISMISSED without prejudice for Plaintiff's failure to file the prison account information as required by order of this Court.

It is further

ORDERED that, on or before January 6, 2022, Plaintiff may file objections to the Recommendation. A party must specifically identify the factual findings and legal conclusions in the Recommendation to which the objection is made. Frivolous, conclusive, or general objections to the Recommendation will not be considered.

Failure to file written objections to the proposed factual findings and legal conclusions set forth in the Recommendations of the Magistrate Judge shall bar a party from a de novo determination by the District Court of these factual findings and legal conclusions and shall “waive the right to challenge on appeal the District Court’s order based on unobjected-to factual and legal conclusions” except upon grounds of plain error if necessary in the interests of justice. 11TH Cir. R. 3-1; see Resolution Trust Co. v. Hallmark Builders, Inc., 996 F.2d 1144, 1149 (11th Cir. 1993) (“When the magistrate provides such notice and a party still fails to object to the findings of fact [and law] and those findings are adopted by the district court the party may not challenge them on appeal in the absence of plain error or manifest injustice.”); Henley v. Johnson, 885 F.2d 790, 794 (11th Cir. 1989).

DONE this 23rd day of December, 2021.
